

This image features real Arendt employees

WE ARE ARENDT.

And here, we are at the right place to live a professional life with a capital L.
A place where challenges become steppingstones, excellence knows no limits, and curiosity intertwines with purpose. This makes us more than just professionals – it makes us different.

About Arendt - your legal, tax and business services firm in Luxembourg

Arendt combines the entire value chain of services dedicated to Asset Managers, Banks, Insurers, Public Institutions, Commercial Companies and Private Clients operating in Luxembourg.

About Arendt & Medernach

With over 450 legal experts, Arendt & Medernach can advise you on every aspect of doing business in Luxembourg from a legal and tax perspective.

We assist clients in structuring and running their business from a legal and tax standpoint across Luxembourg. Our teams directly serve international clients or work in close collaboration with foreign partner law firms.

Together, with our regulatory consultants and investor services experts, we bridge the gap between legal/tax advice and its implementation. We deliver best-in-class services for our clients' business life cycle.

Your profile

- You are currently enrolled in a Master's Degree in Law or a recent Graduate.
- You are proficient in English, combined with French and/or German.
- You are a strong team player looking for a challenge in a high professional and international environment.

Join us now!

ARENDT' YOU eager to take on exceptional projects?

If you think that with passion, high standards and drive you can turn challenges into successes,

YOU ARE AT THE RIGHT PLACE